Being the third most-watched awards show each year, this event is considered by celebrities to be their favourite awards show due to its more relaxed setting and more exclusive format. The formal ceremony is preceded by a dinner and has become more and more exclusive, thus obtaining tickets has become very difficult. However, we are honoured to be able to offer you very limited tickets. After Parties are also available individually, including Warner Bros, In-Style, HBO, NBC/Universal, etc.

The Asian Awards

• LONDON

The Asian Awards were born out of a simple vision; to create an event that would honour only the very highest levels of achievement from within the worldwide Asian community; to create one of the most important events of its kind ever to be staged. A pioneering, unique and prestigious event, The Asian Awards is the only event that pays tribute to Asian success across all walks of life; emphasising inspiring achievements and highlighting inspirational role models in the fields of business, sport, entertainment, philanthropy and popular arts and culture.

Although in the first 2 years, the Asian Awards primary geographical focus was South Asia, it was always the intention to define the term "Asian" as one, which encompasses all Asian countries, i.e. both South Asia and Far Eastern Asia. As a result at the 3rd Asian Awards in 2013, we honoured excellence from ALL Asian countries, over 25 in total. The move was incredibly well received with global Asian icons such as musician Nicole Scherzinger and the legendary Bruce Lee being honoured posthumously. At the 4th Awards, we built on the pan-Asian expansion honouring such people as Jackie Chan and Gok Wan. At the 5th awards, we broke all records on social media for a non-western event. #TheAsianAwards trended at NUMBER 1 worldwide for over 3 hours creating over 4 billion impressions.

The Monaco Grand Prix is held each year on the Circuit de Monaco. It is one of the most important and prestigious races in the world; along with the Indianapolis 500 and Le Mans they form the “Triple Crown of Motorsport”. The glamour, spectacle and history make this race the jewel in the crown of the F1 calendar. The Grand Prix is over 78 laps and a total of approximately 162 miles. The race takes place on the same circuit every year; around the streets of Monte Carlo and La Condamine.

The course is considered to be the ultimate test of driver skill with very little room for driver error. One of the most famous features on the Circuit de Monaco is the tunnel where the drivers have to become accustomed to the very quick changes from light to dark and back to light on a fast section of the track. This feature is not found anywhere else on the F1 circuit.
